The Equestrian Box Christmas Rising Star In hand Championship

We have had such a fantastic year with huge classes in the In Hand sections and over the shows there have been lots of stars who don't always get the recognition they deserve. So we will be giving out tickets during the day to those people who maybe don't always come first and win championships, but we have seen something special in them on the day. They will then come forward to compete in this special championship to compete to be crowned our Christmas Rising Star Champion.
